

WILL Leave For Cadiz On Friday Next.

Watson Now Ready to Start and Impatient to Go.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—This dispatch was received early this morning:

Playa Del Este, July 18.—The Adjutant General's roster of prisoners has been handed in this afternoon by Gen. Toral. The total is 22,789. (Signed) SHAFTER.

Secretary Alger to-day told the newspaper men that the Porto Rican expedition had started from various points, or would later in the day. He said Gen. Miles had been ordered to leave on the Yale from Santiago. He said all of the 22,789 Spanish prisoners mentioned by Gen. Shafter in his report to-day were in the city of Santiago and did not include Spanish troops at other places in the surrendered zone, numbering between 10,000 and 12,000.

Watson Sails This Week.

Probably on Friday.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—Commodore Watson's formidable squadron of battleships and protected auxiliary cruisers will leave on Friday or Saturday for Spain. Additional battleships have been added to the fleet. These ships are now at Guantanamo preparing for the voyage and work before them, and repairs are being effected by the engineer repair ship Vulcan.

COMMODORE JOHN WATSON.

This gallant officer succeeded Admiral Sampson as chief commander of the Cuban blockading squadron when that officer was sent out at random to sink the Spanish fleet. Commodore Watson was Farragut's flag lieutenant at 19, and was in all of Farragut's fights from the capture of New Orleans to Mobile bay. He is a native of Kentucky and has reached the age of 64 years.

The authorities hope that as finally made up by Commodore Watson's fleet will consist of these vessels: Battleships Oregon, Massachusetts, Indiana, Iowa and Texas, the protected cruisers Newark and New Orleans, and the auxiliary cruisers Dixie, Yankee and Yosemite.

Bringing in the Prisoners.

4,000 at Guantanamo Bay.

New York, June 19.—(Special.)—A Journal special from Guantanamo says Caimanera and Guantanamo have surrendered—4,000 Spanish soldiers laid down their arms. 800 of the prisoners are ill.

The Ward line is about to start a weekly steamer service to Santiago. The Philadelphia will be the first steamer to make the trip, leaving Saturday.

BIDS OPEN.

Government Will Not Transport
Toral's Troops Itself.

Will Let the Contract to Regular Steamship Lines at Once.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—Col. Hecker, in charge of the transportation of troops for the War Department, went to New York to-day to open bids to-morrow for the transportation of Toral's troops to Spain.

The army surgeons have been ordered to secure the discharge of all volunteers not fitted for military service. Information has been received that many men not physically qualified have entered the service.

MR. PACK GILES DEAD.

A Prominent Farmer Near Howell
Succumbs to Disease.

Mr. Paschal Giles died at his home, near Howell, at 6 o'clock this morning, after a week's illness of inflammation of the bowels. His illness was not at first regarded as serious, but he continued to grow worse from day to day, until death ended his sufferings.

Mr. Giles was a native of this county and was a representative of one of the best families of South Christian. He was 54 years of age and had lived all his life in the neighborhood where he died.

He was highly esteemed by his neighbors and was an upright, honorable man, who had the confidence of many friends and acquaintances.

His funeral will be preached to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, by Rev. J. W. Mitchell, of this city. The interment will follow at the family burying ground on the premises.

Deceased was a consistent member of the Liberty Christian church, near Beverly.

He leaves a wife and four children, the oldest 14 years of age.

Off for the Reunion.

Mr. C. F. Jarrett, Mr. Walker Wood and Miss Grace Wood, of this city, Mr. H. M. Slaughter, of Trigg county, and perhaps a few others, will leave this afternoon to attend the Confederate reunion at Atlanta. They will stop at Chickamauga on the return trip. Messrs. Grundy Terry and Chas. Baker, of Cadiz, left yesterday.

Damage Suits on Trial.

Two damage cases were put on trial to-day in County Judge Cansler's Court. One is by Lillie Lacy vs. J. J. Stuart for $200 for assault and battery, and the other is by Wm. Lacy vs. J. J. Stuart for breach of contract, for the same amount.

The plaintiffs are colored and Mr. Stuart, the defendant in both cases, is a prominent farmer of Casky. The cases will not be concluded to-day.

Prince of Wales Hurt.

London, July 19.—The Prince of Wales was injured yesterday by missing his footing and falling upon the staircase of the country seat of Baron de Rothschild, Waddeston Manor, Aylesbury, where he is a guest. He struck his knee cap against the edge of the chair and received a painful fracture.

Due to Accidental Causes.

Pompton, N. J., July 19.—(Special.)—The coroner's inquest at the powder mill explosion has decided that the explosion, that killed 11 men, was due to accidental causes.

The Wickliffe Yeoman says: Jack Rich was adjudged a lunatic by a jury at the court house here last Saturday, and was taken to the Hopkinsville asylum by Hal Gee and John Rich.

EIGHT KILLED.

And Many Others Injured By a
Chinaman's Desperate Deed.

Fired Into a Can of Powder When
About to Be Arrested For Murder.

San Francisco, July 19.—(Special.)—Yesterday a Chinese workman at the Melrose Fuse Works, near Oakland, murdered a Chinese merchant and took refuge in the powder magazine. This morning when about to be captured the Chinaman fired a pistol into a can of powder. The explosion demolished the building, killing Constable Keach, Deputy White, Deputy Woodson and four others. Several other men injured will die. Mrs. Wood near by died of the shock. Mrs. Hall is not expected to live. Every building within a radius of 300 yards was razed. Fire completed the destruction and ten box cars adjacent were also burned.

GOES TO AID HIS BROTHER.

Taylor, Who Killed Sandys in St.
Louis, Has Much Sympathy.

Morganfield, Ky., July 19.—(Special.)—Sam Taylor, who shot and killed Ben Sandys in St. Louis Saturday for kidnaping his beautiful little girl, is a native of Union county, and for many years was a prominent merchant of Boxville.

His parents are now living at Uniontown. All indications at this time point to a justifiable killing. It is hoped by the legion of friends of Mr. Taylor in this county that such is the case. His brother, J. G. Taylor, of this city, left for St. Louis this morning.

TYPHOID IN CAMP.

Five Deaths at Camp Alger and Situation Serious.

Washington, July 19.—The prevalence of typhoid fever is the chief subject now engaging the attention of Camp Alger. There were fifty-one cases at the Fort Myer Hospital. Five deaths have been recorded within the last two days. Col. Girard the chief surgeon, said to-day that the fault lay principally with the men. If they would observe the camp rules and drink nothing but boiled and artesian well water there would not be much typhoid.

A Carlist Uprising.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—Dispatches from Madrid say it is rumored there that the Carlists have risen at Baco De Valdeorras and the local authorities are unable to cope with them.

A Decline in Gasoline.

A representative of the Standard Oil Company was in the city to-day and announced a reduction of 1/2 cent in the price of gasoline, the present price being 6 cents in 100 gallon tanks. Other products of the company have also declined.

Pelayo Was Disabled.

Marseilles, July 19.—(Special.)—A steamer arriving last evening reports that it sighted Camara's fleet off Tunis July 16. The Pelayo had evidently had an accident, as she was being towed.

Infant Found Dead in Bed.

An eight months' old son of J. B. Cravens, of Julien, was found dead in bed this morning. Its death is supposed to have been caused from heart disease. The remains will be interred to-morrow morning at the Wm. Cravens burying ground, near Julien.

Schley has proved himself a true friend of the Cuban junk dealers.

START.

Porto Rican Invasion Sails To-day.

Some Troops Now En-Route and Others Ready to Go.

Washington, July 19.—(Special.)—It was stated this morning that by the end of the week a part of the invading army will reach Porto Rico. Sampson will have charge of the naval operations. The plan of attack is understood to be first of all a general blockade of the entire island.

Miles did not leave Siboney yesterday, as he did not receive orders. He will leave as soon as possible, probably to-day.

The Irene Shot At---

Refused to Stop When Ordered.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Hong Kong states, on the authority of Mr. Wildman, the American consul, that as the German warship Irene was passing Mariveles the other day the United States dispatch boat Hugh McCulloch was sent by Admiral Dewey to ask her to stop. The Irene refused to comply with the request, whereupon a shell was fired at her and a boat was sent to watch her.

Admiral Diedrichs protested against this action and insisted that the German ships were entitled to enter the harbor without being searched. Admiral Dewey, however, declined to recognize such a right. It is reported that Admiral Diedrichs asked Capt. Chichester of the British warship Immortalite what he would do if the Germans interfered with an American bombardment of Manila. Capt. Chichester replied that only Admiral Dewey and himself knew what action he would take.

The Antonio Lopez Destroyed.

Spain Already Looking For Watson.

Madrid, July 15.—(Special.)—The Marine commandant at San Juan, Porto Rico, has cabled Correa, Minister of War, that an American cruiser fired upon and burned the Spanish trans-Atlantic line steamer, Antonio Lopez.

The impartial attacks President McKinley for refusing concessions to Gen. Toral. Says he is more rapacious than his own generals.

The belief is very general that Watson sailed some days ago and is liable to appear anywhere at any time.

Coast Towns Want Peace,

And They Want it Quick.

Madrid, July 19.—(Special.)—The President of the Madrid chamber commerce has received 25 declarations in favor of peace from the chambers of commerce representing the coast district. None of the inland cities declare either way.

Hot After Manzanillo.

Several Gunboats Stranded.

London, July 19.—(Special.)—A special dispatch from Havana, dated Monday, says:

"Seven American warships heavily bombarded Manzanillo this morning. Three steamers of the Mendez Line were set on fire. Several gunboats that were in the harbor issued forth to defend the town, but were stranded. The result of the bombardment is not yet known here."

New York, July 19.—(Special.)—A Journal dispatch from Playa del Este says:

All of the American transport ships which have been at Aquadores, Baiquiri and elsewhere along the coast passed Morro Castle and entered the harbor at Santiago this afternoon.

Twenty of them were unable to pass the wreck of the Merrimac and it may be necessary to blow up the Merrimac to let them out after loading.
